Hornell, N. Y. 1911

At the Hayes reunion, held at Glenwood, Aug. 16, 1911, with one hundred and fifty in attendance, A. E. Hayes of Buffalo read a very interesting paper on the genealogy of the Hayes family.

A large number of those present wanted a copy and so the President was instructed to mimeograph enough so that each family could have a copy. I herewith enclose one for you.

The officers elected for the ensuing year are: E. D. Snow, Pres., Hornell, N. Y. ; E. M. Hayes, Vice-Pres., Jasper, N. Y. Horace Bernard, Sec'y-Treas., Canisteo, N. Y.

It was voted to meet at Glenwood next year, sometime in August. The exact date will be chosen later and in due time you will be notified.

A picture was taken and if you want a photo of a happy family of one hundred and fifty, send twenty five cents to the President and one will be mailed to you postpaid.

Our list of names is more or less incomplete, and if you hear of anyone that did not receive a notification of the meeting that has just taken place, I would consider it a special favor if you would send me the name and address.

Sincerely yours,

E. D. Snow, Pres.

HAYES REUNION

AUG. 16, 1911.

Our President has chosen to assign to me the rather difficult task of a Genealogy or History of the Hayes' family.

To myself there has always been a certain charm in the history of individuals and nations--their success and prosperity when doing right and their downfall when going wrong--and it was with a good deal of interest that I undertook the task of ascertaining when our ancestors came to this country and if they really came from England, as supposed, or were the descendants of Ireland, the Philippines or Africa.

Thru the Buffalo Historical Society and the Buffalo Library, I have had several books among which was a History of Norwalk, Connecticut, written over sixty years ago and copied from old records, and I am able to take you today back over a period of nearly three hundred years and to trace down thru seven generations.

Our first real reliable records seem to be with the beginning of the settlement of Norwalk, Conn., and as a good deal of the interest of our history centers around this old New England town, we give you this of its history.

It takes its name from a tribe of Indians, was settled in 1649, incorporated in 1651, suffered severely from Indian invasions in King Phillip's War in 1676-7 and was burned by the British in 1779.

In the first list of lots, as held by the original settlers in 1661, appears the name of Nathaniel Hayes and in the map made of the town in 1666 I find and trace the lot he held and probably the first home of our ancestors in the New World.

In 1671 in what appears as an inventory of Estates and Lands held, we find him credited with 118 pounds (about $578), and in 1687, sixteen years later, his possessions have reached the sum of 215 pounds or over $1000. This must have been accounted some property in those days--enough to have purchased a fairly good auto, or that which might have been much more to their needs--several yoke of oxen.

We find his name often mentioned in connection with the meeting house, and the minister and his salary. And, by the way, the problem of conducting the church in those strenuous times seemed to cause them as much anxiety as did their trouble with the Indians and the wolves.

The First Church of Christ seemed to be the church with which they were identified; and we find Nathaniel and later his son James, mentioned as being connected therewith.

In 1697 we find among the list of voters the names of Nathaniel, James and Samuel (our tribe increases), and in 1699 we find James Hayes allowed 10 pounds for flax for our town drum.

In 1710 James Hayes was granted to sit in seat in meeting house where Lt. Lee formerly sat.

Nathaniel Hayes was still living in Norwalk in 1694, and names in his will, grandchildren--Nathaniel, Elizabeth and Mary.

We might draw, in imagination, many pictures of the hardships and sufferings of those early pioneers of that wilderness that bordered on Long Island Sound, of their later migration over into Dutchess Co., in this state, and still later into central New York, but as history is called for and expected, we present herewith "The Genealogy of the Nathaniel Hayes Family," as I have copied from the available records.

GENEALOGY OF THE NATHANIEL HAYES FAMILY

We find the name 'Hayes' in many parts of England in the 17th century. It occurs in the calendars 36 times in 18 counties, from 1680 to 1680.

Four families of the name of Hayes are recorded in New England History in the 17th century, and as they came at or about the same time it is reasonable to suppose they were related.

Thomas Hayes, Milford, Ct., 1645, descendants removed to New Jersey, where they still remain.

Nathaniel Hayes, Norwalk, Ct., came from Dover, England, and was one of the original settlers in Norwalk in 1661.

John Hayes of Dover, N. H., came from Scotland in 1680, founder of widespread and honorable New England family, many of whom still cling to N. H. and Me.

George Hayes who also came from Scotland as early as 1680, then about 25 years of age and whom early tradition calls a brother of the N. H. emigrant.

As the name 'Hayes' does not appear in Scottish history, the latter two were very likely of English birth, as the same seems to be purely English.

(I) GENERATION

As our interest and history all centers around the one NATHANIEL, we need not mention the other three, except to add there is a history written of the one 'George' and the late Mrs. Hayes; also the renowned Harold, Ph. D., of Buffalo and his descendants.

Nathaniel Hayes being one of the original settlers of Norwalk, in 1661 and then a young man, was probably born about 1625 in the seacoast town of Dover, England, a strongly fortified city 70 miles S. E. of London. No record of his marriage or a complete record of his children appear, but we find that in 1672 he has 7 children, one whose name is James, whom we will designate as James I, as the name appears in each succeeding generation.

(II) GENERATION

James H. (I) born, date unknown; married Mary Allen, daughter of Thomas Allen of N. J., April 1702. Their children were:

In looking over the list of "Soldiers of the Revolution" from Conn., I find this: Continental frigate "Confederacy", 38 guns, was built on the Thames, below Norwich, and landed in 1773. Sailed to France, returned in 1781, was captured off the coast of Va., by a British 74 & taken to Charleston

S. C., then in the enemy's possession.

READ BY MRS. MARY HAYES HADLEY, OF SANTELE, CALIF., AT THE HAYES' REUNION AT GLENWOOD, AUG., 1918.

Words cannot express the pleasure it gives me to be present with you today as a member of the Hayes' Reunion. Five years ago when this Reunion first started by the members of the Lewis Hayes' family, I was here, but never expected to meet with you again. But as I am here I have been requested to give a slight sketch of the record of this family.

Lewis Hayes and Patty Parmelia, his wife, were the parents of sixteen children, four of whom died in their youth and twelve grew up to manhood and womanhood who had families.

The eldest, Elizabeth S, married Joseph Merrick, Sep. 1, 1833. Their children were: John Wesley, Anna Maria, Harriet, Fannie, Wesley, who gave his life for his country, Mary A, Angeline, Clarissa and Emma.

Anna Reynolds, born Aug. 3, 1811, died Sep. 1, 1826.

Hiram S, married Lydia Skinner, Jan. 18, 1838. Their children were: Rhoda, Lewis, Ira, Betsey, Laura, Nancy, Edgar, William and Almond.

Lucy Almira, married Jacob Vanbyrne, Oct. 10, 1833. Their children were: William, Amanda, Van Kenschler, Parmelia, Hannah, Isaac, Eugene, Caroline and Ambrosia.

Sally C, married Sylvester Winslip, Oct. 16, 1836. Their children were: James, Nehemiah and Wesley who yielded up their lives for their country; * George, William, Henry, Cordelia, Serena, Cameron and Rosie.

James (record omitted)

William M. Married Jane Shaw; after she died he married Hester Travis. Their children were: Charles, Perry and Fletcher.

Patty P, born May 14, 1820; died, Sep. 27, 1826.

Rhoda M. Married Franklin Latchelder, Feb. 2, 1842. Their children were: Elizabeth, Demaris, Edwin, Emma, Viola, Anna and Willis.

Harriet N. Married Halsey Ferriss, Jan. 8, 1842. Their children were: Albert, Edna, Harrison, Uri, Sumner, Mattie, Wesley, Halsey and Esther.

Daniel, born Jan. 28, 1826, died Aug. 4, 1830.

Nancy M. Married George Tubbs, Apr. 24, 1854. Their children were: Saphronia, Willard, Lewis, Levi, Orsula, Theresa and Ira.

Clarissa K., married Phillip Failing, May 3, 1863. Their children were: Emmet, Agnes, Angie and Edna.

Ira H., born Jan 7, 1830; died May 13, 1843.

Mary A. Married Francis Harwood, Mar. 23, 1863. Their children were: Mattie and Edna.

Julia E. Married George Beneway, Jan---1853. Their children were: Melvin, Carrie, George, Hester, Corina, Lelia, Wesley and Agnes.

May each of us, as members of this family, strive to maintain and perpetuate the same noble Christian characters that characterized that of our fathers and mothers.

As we separate to day, may the bonds of Christian Fellowship and kindred ties and cords of love bind closer around us, and may we live better lives and emulate the example of those who left to us a better and richer legacy than that of silver and gold.

* George and Mary Hayes Hadley were first cousins.

Britton or Brittain are the same name and we find them used interchangeably. In law they are idem sonans which means they are sounded the same and are equivalents for all intents and purposes. There are many other forms of the name, but these are the most common. It is said this surname went into England from France as early as the year 1066 among the followers of William the Norman Conqueror. Various forms of the name are found in Medieval England.

The ancient Gloucestershire line of the family is said to have been represented in the early sixteenth century by one, John Britton, who died about 1582 and was succeeded in his estates by his oldest son Thomas ( p 3 Media ).

In the early seventeenth century this Gloucestershire line was represented by one John Brittain, who married Elinor Cross. Of this line are believed to have been Nicholas Brittain or Brittain, and a certain Britton (Christian or first name unknown), who was the father of Cananiel (also appearing in later records as Canuniel or Cannonwell), Richard, Abigail, Jane, Daniel, Nathaniel and William, of whom the last three are said to have emigrated to America. (Media P). The before mentioned emigrant brothers Daniel, Nathaniel and William Britton, from Gloucester County, England, are believed to have made their homes in New York (Media p5 ). In many records the name Canuniel or Cannonwell is found rather than Daniel. It may be a corruption occurring in writing or transcribing, but we will use them interchangeably for the purpose of the narration. At any rate the record is clear that the three brothers came to this country, possibly as early as 1650, and were first found on Long Island.

( The above was compiled by James E. Britton, Wayne, Nebraska )

In the "Stillwell Genealogy" written by the late Dr. John E. Stillwell, known as a very careful genealogist, it is stated that the three brothers, Nathaniel, Canuniel and William Britton, came to America about 1650. Canuniel settles in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, but some years later moved to Philadelphia. Nathaniel was a merchant and land speculator. He married Ann Stillwell about 1655. He died in 1684 and she in 1686. She was the daughter of Nicholas Stillwell who came to this country about 1629 and settled in what is now York County, Virginia. He moved to Long Island about 1636 and settled in Gravesend in 1638. Was a Lieutenant in Esopus War (1663). Died December 1671 .

First Families of America Vol 13 page 684 gives:

In the "Genealogy of the New Jersey" Volume 3 page 883 is found the following:

NATHANIEL BRITTON was of English origin and emigrated to this country previous to 1660 when he bought 25 organs of land in Flatlands, Kings County, N. Y. (Brooklyn)..... In 1664 he obtained a patent for a tract of 144 acres on the southeast side of Staten Island where he finally settled and set up a tap house. On April 27, 1671, he and a Certain Mr. Stilwell were chosen to lay out the lots on the hills and he died prior to April, 1708, when letters of administration upon his estate were granted. He married ANNA, daughter of NICHOLAS Stilwell of Gravesend, Long Island, who was born in 1643. Their children were WILLIAM, NATHANIEL, Sarah, Rachel, Joseph, Rebecca, Benjamin, Richard, John, Abigail, Daniel and Nicholas."

(7) NATHANIEL BRITTON 1660-1729

Dr. Stilwell further says (Opus cited) NATHANIEL, son of the emigrant NATHANIEL was born about 1660 and moved to Staten Island about 1700. He married ELIZABETH GARRITSON (Liber 8, Page 210 N.Y. wills). He was a Lieutenant in the Richmond County (Staten Island) Militia in 1725. He died in 1729. His widow married Abraham Brewer and was still living in 1743 when she signed the consent to her son's WILLIAM'S marriage. This was the WILLIAM that married Mary Collins. Nothing much is known of CORNELIUS GARRITSON, the father of Elizabeth.

In the New York Historical Society Records, Volume 11, page 150 we find that NATHANIEL BRITTON died June 1, 1729. He mentions in his will the following children; Richard, Nicholas, Nathaniel, Elizabeth, Alice, Rebecca, John, Samuel, Mary, Sarah, Rachel, WILLIAM (m. Mary Collins) and Abraham (deceased). They resided on Staten Island, N. Y

(8) William BRITTON 1725-1804

In Volume XXII of the New Jersey Archives which contains marriage records only, we find this simple statement:

"Britton, William, Long Island, and Mary Collins, Monmouth November 30, 1743."

Mr. Lord of Washington says it is interesting to him because William in signing the bond spelled it BRITTAIN. "This is the earliest record I have seen where the name is spelled that way" says Mr. Lord.

WILLIAM BRITTAIN was born on Staten Island, New York in 1725. As before stated in the New Jersey Archives (Vol. XXII, P. 22, 23) we find that he married Mary Collins of Monmouth, New Jersey on November 30, 1743. It is an old family tradition that the wife was for the Colonies and the husband for the King, and that the sons enlisted in the patriotic cause on the same day that three of their brothers joined up with the armies of King George. It is quite certain that three sons, Nathaniel, ZEBORAH and Samuel did serve in the Colonial Militia during the Revolution, and almost as certain that the other three brothers, James, William and Joseph were Tories and went to New Brunswick, Canada after the war and were granted land in Nova Scotia by Great Britain.

The children were:

Nathaniel Brittain, born March 12, 1744. Served in Hunterdon County, New Jersey Militia and also in Northampton County, Pennsylvania Militia in the same Company with his brother Leboath.

LEBOETH BRITTAIN, born January 9, 1746 in Anwell Township, Hunterdon County, New Jersey. Served in Northampton County, Pennsylvania Militia during the Revolution.

Samuel Brittain, born in New Jersey, March 9, 1750, married Sarah Bright. A private in Capt. McCallas Company, Bucks County Pennsylvania. Also served in Hunterdon County, New Jersey, Militia (D. A. R. publ. Vol. 66-p99). His son Jeremia is the grandfather of Joseph I. Brittain, formerly of the American Consular Service. His daughter was the mother of Bishop Thomas Bowman (deceased) of the M. E. Church.

James Brittain, born August 31, 1753. Said to have been a Tory, and to have gone to Canada after the Revolution. (a) See Sabines "Loyalists of New Brunswick" which states that James, Joseph and William went to New Brunswick and there died.

William Brittain born October 15, 1754. Married Christian Aten, died in New Brunswick, Canada in 1813.

Elizabeth Brittain, born March 11, 1748.

Mary Brittain, born March 4, 1757, married John Vorhees

Rachel Brittain, born May 6, 1761. Married a Thornton.

Sarah Brittain born November 7, 1764. Married Abraham Willet. Died December 4, 1843, near Orangeville, Penn.

(5) LEBOETH BRITTAIN AND ELIZABETH MARR

LEBOETH BRITTAIN was the second son of William Brittain and Mary Collins. He was born in Amwell Township, Hunterdon County, New Jersey on January 9, 1746 and died July 7, 1790. His wife was Elizabeth Marr, daughter of Lawrence Marr of Ireland. She was born in Amwell Township, Hunterdon County, New Jersey in 1748, and did not die until 25 years after her husband, in June 1815. From "Chart of Lawrence Marr" by W. P. Marr, Racine, Wisconsin we have that Lawrence Marr was born in Scotland. After a brief stay in Ireland, he came to America in 1736 and settled in Northampton County, Pennsylvania. His daughter Elizabeth married Leboeth Brittain in 1767 or 1768.

Their children:

WILLIAM born April 4, 1769, died March 3, 1847. Married Sarah Aten, born May 20, 1769, died February 2, 1841.

Joseph, born March 23, 1772. died March 7, 1832.

David, born circa 1773

Elizabeth, born circa 1775

Rachel, born circa 1777

John Brittain, born June 20, 1779.

Zeboeth BRITTAIN was a taxpayer in upper Mt. Bethel Townshi;, Northampton County, Pennsylvania in 1786, when he was taxed for 125 acres of land, 3 horses and a cow (Pennsylvania Archives 3rd Series, Vol. 19, P. 269) Lawrence Marr, his father-in-law was a taxpayer in the same Township in 1785 (p.1480 and 1788 p.378). Elizabeth Brittain was shown by the census of 1790 as a resident of Lower Mt. Bethel Township, Northampton County, Pennsylvania.

(4) WILLIAM BRITTAIN AND SARAH ATEN

The records in the office of the county Clerk at Sanbury, Pennsylvania show that William Brittain bought land in the county in 1792. There are also several deeds signed by William and Sarah (Aten) his wife.

You are a descendant of Mathew Jaquenline Eggleston, Brother of Edward Eggleston and William Cary, all three being in war of the Revolution.

They were the sons of William Eggleston of Locust Grove, Amelia Co. Va. The home much run down is still standing not far from the present court and not far from Eggleston, the home of Joseph Eggleston, William's brother and of his son Major Joseph of the Revolution.

William Eggleston of Locust Grove, was born in James City County and was the son of Joseph Eggleston, who was a member of the house of Burgesses of James City, and his second wife Anne Pettus, this Joseph died in 1730, while a Burgess-Hissons moved from James City County and settled in Amelia, Hanover and Cumberland Counties.

My ancestor Richard, brother of William settled in Cumberland, John settled in Hanover, Edmund did likewise, William and Joseph in Amelia. John and William ~~xxx~~ married two Cary sisters. William's wife was Judith Cary, daughter of ~~xxxxx~~ William Cary of Prince George County and his wife Judith Jones.

William Cary was a descendant of the Migrant Miles Cary of Bristol, England. He was a very noted public man, was a Burgess, and held pretty much every office that existed at that time.

The first Eggleston was Richard who came over in 1635 and settled in James City County about two miles from Williamsburg and not far from Jamestown. He patented lands on Powhatan Swamp and either he or his son Richard built old "Powhatan" a brick residence still standing and of which I have an Excellent residence still standing and of which I have an excellent picture

This house was built the 1600 probably 1643. I can get you a picture of this if you wish it will cost you about $2.00. Either the first or second Richard was in the Battle of Bloody Run. Whether the first Joseph, the Burgess was the son of Richard 11. or a Grandson has not been ascertained. The name of his first is not known, they had a son or two daughters, certainly one. Through Anne Pettus we are descended from the Overtons also and the Pettus and Overton lines run back into England. ~~My father's~~ ~~My father's~~ ~~My father's~~. I have not yet traced the first Richard Eggleston back in England, but am on his trail.
